Standard Terms of Business

1 Introduction

Investing in the Products we provide carries a high level of risk to your capital, which may not be appropriate for all investors. You should ensure that you understand the risks involved and seek independent advice if necessary. The prices of our Products may change to your disadvantage very quickly. CFD Margin Trades involve leverage and this may result in losses exceeding your deposit.

- 6) If you are unsure of the validity of these terms or the nature of the risks involved, you should not submit an application form for opening a margin trading account. If you fill in, sign or submit an application form to Finior Capital Limited to open a margin trading account, it indicates that you have confirmed that you have read and received and you fully understand the terms and conditions of the relevant papers (including risk disclosure and policy), and that you understand and accept that your relationship with Finior Capital Limited will be affected by such terms and conditions as amended from time to time.

- 3) Each Party irrevocably waives to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, with respect to itself and its revenues and assets (irrespective of their use or intended use), all immunity on the grounds of sovereignty or other similar grounds from
 - (i) suit;
 - (ii) jurisdiction of any courts;
 - (iii) relief by way of injunction, order for specific performance or for recovery of property, and;
 - (iv) attachment of its assets (whether before or after judgment) and

3 Products and Service

- 1) This Agreement sets out the basis on which we will enter into Transactions with you and governs each Transaction entered into or outstanding between you and us on or after the date that this Agreement comes into effect.

Standard Terms of Business

- (i) Options, Futures, CFDs or such similar Instruments pertaining to indices, rolling spot forex, commodities, currencies, base and precious metals;
 - (ii) Such other Instruments as we may cover from time to time in accordance with our FSRA license.
- 3) We will act as an agent (Broker) on your behalf. We shall treat you as a Professional customer subject to the following:
 - (i) if you satisfy the FSRA definition of Professional customer or Market Counterparty, we may notify you that we will treat you as such;
 - (ii) you may request a different client categorization from the one we have allocated to you, but be aware that we may decline your application or close your account if, in our discretion, we believe that the categorization you have requested is inappropriate and/or we are not allowed by our financial services permission to offer services to such class of clients. If you do request a different categorization and we agree to such a request, you may be offered the protection afforded to that client classification category as mentioned in FSRA rulebooks, except agreed otherwise by you; and
 - (iii) if you are a Market Counterparty, the terms of this Agreement will be applicable to you and you hereby agree to be bound.
- 4) You are responsible for informing us of any changes that could affect your classification as a Professional customer or Market Counterparty.
- 5) You will open each Transaction with us as principal and not as agent for any undisclosed person. This means that unless we have otherwise agreed in writing, we will treat you as our client for all purposes and you will be responsible for performing your obligations under each Transaction entered into by you, whether you are dealing with us directly or through an agent. If you act in connection with or on behalf of someone else, whether or not you identify that person to us, we will not accept that person as an indirect customer of ours and we will accept no obligation to them unless otherwise specifically agreed in writing.
- 6) Trading with you will be carried out by us on a non-advised basis (i.e., an “execution-only” basis) and you agree that, unless otherwise provided in this Agreement, we are under no obligation:
 - (i) to satisfy ourselves as to the suitability of any Transaction for you;
 - (ii) to monitor or advise you on the status of any Transaction;

Standard Terms of Business

- (iv) (except in the case of Limited Risk Transactions or where the Applicable Regulations require) to close any Transaction that you have opened, notwithstanding that previously we may have taken such action in relation to that Transaction or any other.
- 7) We are not providing you with any investment, legal, regulatory or other form of advice. You may wish to seek independent advice in relation to any Transaction you propose to enter into under this Agreement. You are required to rely on your own judgement (with or without the assistance of an advisor) in entering into, or refraining from entering into, Transactions. You are not entitled to ask us to provide you with investment advice relating to a Transaction or to make any statement of opinion to encourage you to open a particular Transaction.
- 8) We may, at our absolute discretion, provide information:
 - (i) in relation to any Transaction about which you have enquired, particularly regarding procedures and risks attaching to that Transaction and ways of minimizing risk; and
 - (ii) by way of factual market information,

However, we will be under no obligation to disclose such information to you and in the event of us supplying such information it will not constitute investment advice. If, notwithstanding the fact that dealings between you and us are on a non-advised basis (i.e., an “execution-only” basis), one of our employees nevertheless makes a statement of opinion (whether in response to your request or otherwise) regarding any Instrument or Transaction, you agree that it is not reasonable for you to, nor will you be entitled to, rely on such statement as, and that it will not constitute, investment advice.
- 9) You acknowledge that the Product Details that apply at the time when you open or close a Transaction will be those displayed on our website(s), which may be updated from time to time.
- 10) We will take all sufficient steps to provide you with best execution in accordance with the FSRA Rules and our Order Execution Policy when we execute Transactions on your behalf. The arrangements we put in place to give you best execution are in our Order Execution Policy, which is provided on our website. Unless you notify us to the contrary, you will be deemed to consent to our Order Execution Policy when this Agreement comes into effect. If you do not consent, we reserve the right to refuse to provide our services to you. We may amend our Order Execution Policy from time to time and may notify you of any material amendments by giving written notice or posting them on our website or on one of our Electronic Trading Services.
- 11) We offer different types of accounts with different features (for example different Margining procedures, different Margin rates, different trading limits). Depending on your knowledge and experience and the type of Transactions you generally place with us, some of these account types may not be available to you. We reserve the right to convert your account into a different account type if, acting reasonably, we determine that a different type of account is more appropriate for you, more appropriate in the market circumstances or our risk appetite changes in relation to offering that account type or for any other reason we decide upon. We also reserve the right to change the features and eligibility criteria of our accounts at any time without prior notification. We may provide prior notification of such changes on our website, by email or on one of our Electronic Trading Services.

- 12) For the avoidance of doubt, even though we may have accepted Transactions and provided services to you, we may, at any time, cease to offer any services and/or remove products from our then prevailing offering regardless of whether you suffer losses, subject to the extent and in a manner allowable within FSRA rules and subject to reasonable advance notification from us to you when applicable. Specifically, we may, from time to time, discontinue or deactivate a Trading Platform or migrate your Account from one Trading Platform to another (the “New Trading Platform”) if, in our reasonable opinion, the New Trading Platform would provide you with similar, additional or more competitive products and services including, pricing and execution facilities, fees, commissions and spreads.
- 13) From time to time, we may make additional account features, products and services or specific types of Transactions available to you. You will be notified in writing if these account features, products or services are subject to additional terms. Any additional terms applying to a particular account feature, product or service will be effective and binding on you from the date that you first enter into a Transaction or use the service governed by those terms.
- 14) If you receive other services from us under a different agreement, you must not assume that we use any information collected in relation to any other service for the purposes of the services we provide to you under this Agreement. Likewise, you must not assume that we use information we receive from you in relation to the services we provide under this Agreement when we provide any other service to you under a different agreement. Notwithstanding this, we may, in our absolute discretion, use such information.

4 Conflicts of Interest

- 1) You acknowledge that we provide a diverse range of financial services to a broad range of clients and counterparties and circumstances may arise in which we, an associated companies, or a third-party may have a material interest in a Transaction with or for you or where a conflict of interest may arise between your interests and those of other clients or counterparties or of ourselves, the associated Company or a third-party.
- 2) We are required by law to take all appropriate steps to identify conflicts of interests between ourselves and our clients, or between one client and another, that arise in the course of providing our services. The following are examples of such material interests and conflicts of interests:

Standard Terms of Business

Where we do not consider that the arrangements under our Conflicts Policy are sufficient to manage any particular conflict, then as a last resort, we will inform you of the nature of the conflict and any steps taken to mitigate the risk arising from such conflict, so that you can decide how to proceed. We are not under any obligation to account to you for any profit, commission or remuneration made or received from or by reason of Transactions or circumstances in which we, or an associated Company or a third-party has a material interest or where in particular circumstances a conflict of interest may exist, except where such a disclosure is required by the law and applicable regulations in that case we will ensure compliance with such regulations.
- 4) We operate a policy of independence which requires our employees to act in your best interests and to disregard any conflicts of interests in providing our services to you. In addition, we have in place organizational and administrative controls to manage the conflicts of interests identified above such that we can be reasonably confident that risks of damage to clients as a result of any conflict will be prevented. These organizational and administrative controls are set out in our Conflicts Policy, available on our website or by post on request.
- 5) You acknowledge that you are aware of the possibility that the conflicts disclosed in this Term may arise and give your consent to us to act notwithstanding such conflict.

5 Fees, Charges and Other Costs

Such fees will generally be applied to your Account on a per trade basis but may also be applied on any other basis as we determine from time to time. You understand that such fees vary based on the Trading Platform and/or on a daily and continuous basis depending on many factors including market conditions, currency pairs, availability of Instruments in the market etc. Details of these charges may be found in the Product Details section of our web- site or may be obtained from one of our employees on request.

Any Charge will be your responsibility and where appropriate will be deducted from your account.
- 3) When you open and close a Commission Transaction, you will pay us Commission ("Commission") that is calculated as a percentage of the notional value of the opening or closing Transaction (as applicable) or as an amount per equivalent Instrument or Instruments on the Underlying Market or on any other basis agreed between ourselves in writing. Our Commission terms will be notified in writing to you, however, in the event that we do not notify you of the commission terms, we will charge the standard commission rate as published on the Product Details section of our website.

- 9) If we receive or recover any commissions, cost, expense, fee or any other amount in respect of your obligations under these Terms in a currency other than that in which the amount was payable, whether pursuant to a judgment of any court or otherwise, you will indemnify us and hold us harmless from and against any cost (including costs of conversion) and Loss suffered by us as a result of receiving such amount in a currency other than the currency in which it was due.

In the event that you logon to your Account(s) and trade in your Account(s) in excess of 500 USD in commissions in the period during which the account administration fee is being applied, we will cease to deduct the Account administration fee, but we shall not be obligated to refund any Account administration fees deducted from your Account prior to such log-on and trading activity. Accounts with a zero free balance will be closed automatically and disconnected. However, for certain cases, at the discretion of management, such waiver may be granted. No activity fee is charged for account other than a FIX API client.

Standard Terms of Business

6 Orders

- 1) We may, at our absolute discretion, accept an Order from you. An Order is an offer to open or close a Transaction if the instructions specified by you in an Order are satisfied (such as if our price moves to, or beyond a level specified by you). Examples of such Orders are:
 - (i) A Market Order, which is an instruction to deal now in a specified size at the best available price for that size. Market Orders are useful when you wish to deal but may be unable to deal in your desired size at the quoted bid and offer price. You do not have any control over what price your Market Order will be filled at. When you place a Market Order with us you acknowledge that such Market Order allows us to execute your Transaction at a price that is worse than our quoted bid and offer price at the time you place the Market Order. A Market Order is triggered as soon as it is accepted by us.
 - (ii) A Trailing Stop, which is similar to a Stop Order, but it allows you to set a floating stop level that automatically moves when our quote moves in your favour. A Trailing Stop is triggered and executed in the same way as a Stop Order as set out in Term 6(3) and subject to Term 6(4). By using our Trailing Stop functionality, you acknowledge the following:
 - (a) Trailing Stops are an automated tool that must be used with caution and must be supervised by you; and
 - (b) we do not guarantee to operate our Trailing Stop Trading Platform on a continuous basis so there may be instances in which your stop level might not in fact move with current quote on the trading platform for the relevant Instrument, for example:
 - i. where our Trailing Stop functionality (i.e. the Trading Platforms and technology that operate our Trailing Stops) is inactive; or
 - ii. where our current quote for the relevant Instrument is Manifestly Erroneous; or
 - iii. where there has been a large, short term price movement in our quote for the relevant Instrument that is unrepresentative of current Underlying Market conditions.
 - (iii) A Limit Order, is an instruction to deal when our quote (current quote on trading platform) reaches the set price limit by you. A 'take profit' Order is an Attached Limit Order. A Limit Order can be used to either open or close a Transaction. Each Limit Order has a specified limit, set by you. Your Limit Order will be triggered if our bid price (in the case of an Order to Sell) or our offer price (in the case of an order to Buy) moves in your favour to a point that is at or beyond your specified limit. Once a Limit Order is triggered, we will, in accordance with Term 6(3) and subject to Term 6(4), seek to open or close a Transaction at a level that is the same or better than your limit. If we cannot do so because at the time we seek to execute your Order, our bid and offer price has become less favorable to you, your Limit Order will remain operational, waiting for prices to move again in your favour such that it is triggered.

- (iv) A Stop Order, which is an offer to deal if our quote becomes less favorable to you. A Stop Order is generally placed to provide some risk protection, for example in the event of your Transaction moving into loss, and can be used to either open or close a Transaction. Each Stop Order has a specific stop level, set by you. Your Stop Order will be triggered if our bid price (in the case of an Order to Sell) or our offer price (in the case of an Order to Buy) moves against you to a point that is at or beyond the level specified by you. Once a Stop Order is triggered we will, in accordance with Term 6(3) and subject to Term 6(4), open or as the case may be close a Transaction at a level that is the same or worse than your stop level.
 - (v) A Partial Order, which is an instruction to deal now at the size specified by you or, if there is not sufficient liquidity at that size, in the largest size possible. A Partial Order is useful if you want to increase the likelihood of at least part of your Order being filled. If your Order is filled, the size of your Order may be less than the size specified by you. Partial Orders can be used in conjunction with other Orders. When you place a Partial Order with us you acknowledge that such Partial Order allows us to execute your Transaction in a size that is smaller than the size specified by you. A Partial Order is triggered as soon as it is accepted by us.
- 2) You may specify that an Order is to apply:
- (i) until the next close of business for the relevant Underlying Market (a 'day order'), which, for the avoidance of doubt, will include any overnight trading sessions on the Underlying Market. Please note that for Limit Orders placed on the phone, we will assume that you wish to place a 'day order' unless you specify some other duration; or
 - (ii) until a date and time specified by you (but such an Order may only be an Unattached Order and may only be placed in respect of a daily or quarterly Transaction); or
 - (iii) for an indefinite period (a "Good Till Cancelled Order" or "GTC Order"), which, for the avoidance of doubt, will include any overnight trading sessions on the Underlying Market. We may, at our absolute discretion, accept standing Orders that will apply for some other specified duration. We may act on any such Order irrespective of the length of time for which the specified level in relation to that Order is reached or exceeded.

Standard Terms of Business

- 3) If your Order is triggered (as set out in Term 6(1) above), we will seek to open or close the Transaction to which your Order relates, acting in accordance with our duty of best execution. You acknowledge and agree that the time and level at which Orders are executed and the size of your Order will be determined by us, acting reasonably. In this regard:
 - (i) we will seek to execute your Order within a reasonable time of your Order being triggered. Because there may be a manual element to our processing of Orders and because it is possible for a single sudden event to trigger a large number of Orders, you acknowledge and agree that what constitutes a 'reasonable time' may vary according to the size of your Order, the level of activity in the Underlying Market, and the number of Orders that have been triggered at the time your Order is triggered.
 - (ii) at the time we are seeking to execute your Order, we will have regard to the price that could be achieved in the Underlying Market for a similar order (including as to size).
- 4) By using our Orders, you expressly acknowledge and agree that:
 - (i) it is your responsibility to understand how an Order operates before you place any such Order with us and that you will not place an Order unless you fully understand the terms and conditions attached to such Order. Details about how Orders work are available in the Product Details or from one of our employees on request.
 - (ii) when you place and we accept an Order you are trading with us as principal and not dealing on the Underlying Market.
 - (iii) the triggering of your Order is linked to our bid and offer prices, not the bid and offer prices on the Underlying Market. Our bid and offer prices may differ from the bid and offer prices in the Underlying Market. The effect of such is that your Order may be triggered even though:
 - (a) our bid or offer, as the case may be, moved to or through the level of your Order for only a short period; and
 - (b) the Underlying Market never traded at the level of your Order.
 - (iv) whether or not we accept an Order is at our absolute discretion. Not all Orders are available on all Transactions, nor on all Electronic Trading Services.
 - (v) for the purposes of determining whether an Order has been triggered, we will be entitled (but not obliged), at our absolute discretion, to disregard any prices quoted by us during any pre-market, post-market in the relevant Underlying Market, during any intraday or other period of suspension in the relevant Underlying Market, or during any other period that in our reasonable opinion may give rise to short-term price spikes or other distortions.

Standard Terms of Business

- (vi) following your Order being triggered, we do not guarantee that a Transaction will be opened or closed, nor do we guarantee that if opened or closed it will be done so at your specified size, level or limit.
 - (vii) notwithstanding Term 6(1)(i), if you have a Stop Order that relates to an exchange traded product that behaves more like a Market Maker Share (for example, an exchange traded fund or an exchange traded commodity), we reserve the right to trigger your Stop Order based on our bid and offer prices even if the Underlying Market has not traded at your specified Stop Order level. Further details of the relevant Instruments that may be impacted by this sub-Term are available from one of our employees upon request.
 - (viii) we reserve the right both to work and to aggregate Orders. Working an Order may mean that your Order is executed in tranches at different prices, resulting in an aggregate opening or closing level for your Transaction that may differ both from your specified level and from the price that would have been attained if the Order had been executed in a single tranche. Aggregating an Order means that we combine your Order with the Orders of other clients of ours for execution as a single Order. We may do this only if we reasonably believe that this is in the overall best interests of clients as a whole. However, on occasions, aggregation may result in you obtaining a less favorable price in relation to any particular Order. You acknowledge and agree that we shall not, under any such circumstances, have any liability to you as a result of any such working or aggregation of your Orders.
- 5) You may, with certain conditions seek our prior consent (and such consent will not be unreasonably withheld), cancel or amend the level of an Order at any time before our quote reaches or goes beyond the relevant level. However, once the level has been reached, we may prohibit you from canceling or amending the Order unless we expressly agree to permit you to do so.
- 6) If you place an Attached Order then:
- (i) if, when the Order is executed, it will be capable of closing or partly closing the Transaction to which the Attached Order relates, and you subsequently offer to close that Transaction prior to the level of the Attached Order being reached, we will treat that offer to close as a request to cancel the Attached Order. You acknowledge that it is your responsibility to inform us, when you close a Transaction, whether you wish any related un-triggered Attached Order(s) to remain valid, and that, unless otherwise agreed by us, any untriggered Attached Order(s) will be cancelled; and

Note that the Initial Margin for certain Transactions, will be based on a percentage of the Contract Value of the Transaction and therefore the Initial Margin due for such Transactions will fluctuate in accordance with the Contract Value if you change the Volume Size of your position. Initial Margin is due and payable to us immediately upon opening the Transaction.
- 2) Details of Margin amounts paid and owing by you are available by logging on to our Trading Platforms or by telephoning one of our employees. You acknowledge:

- 4) We will keep you informed of your account balance and Margin required (i.e. to make a 'Margin call') as per the applicable FSRA rules, however if we do so the Margin call may be made by one of the following: telephone call, post, email, text message or through a Trading Platform. Any message that we leave for you requesting you to contact us should be regarded by you as extremely urgent unless we specify to the contrary when we leave the message. You acknowledge and accept that what constitutes a reasonable time in the context of this Term may be influenced by the state of the Underlying Market and that, according to the circumstances, could be a matter of minutes or even immediately.

It is your responsibility to notify us immediately of any change in your contact details and to provide us with alternative contact details and ensure that our calls for Margin will be met if you will be uncontactable at the contact address or telephone number notified to us (for example because you are travelling or are on holiday, or you are prevented from being in contact because of a religious holiday). We will not be liable for any losses, costs, expenses or damages incurred or suffered by you as a consequence of your failure to do so.

- 5) Subject to Term 7(8) below, we will be entitled, at any time, to increase or decrease the Margin required from you on open Transactions for your account. If there is any shortfall between your account balance (taking into account P&L) and your total Initial Margin requirement, you will be required to deposit additional funds into your account. These funds will be due and payable to us for our own account, immediately on your account balance (taking into account P&L) falling below your Initial Margin requirement unless:
- (i) we have expressly agreed to reduce or waive all or part of the Margin that we would otherwise require you to pay us in respect of your Transaction(s). The period of such waiver or reduction may be temporary or may be in place until further notice. Any such waiver or reduction must be agreed by an Authorised Employee in writing (including by email) in order to be effective. Any such agreement does not limit, fetter or restrict our rights to seek further Margin from you in respect of the Transaction at any time thereafter;
 - (ii) we agree, by an Authorised Employee, otherwise in writing (including by email), in which case you will be required to comply with such terms as are stated in the written agreement; or

Standard Terms of Business

- 15) You acknowledge the inherent risk that communications by electronic means may not reach their intended destination or may do so later than intended for reasons outside our control. You accept this risk and agree that a failure or delay by us to receive any offer or communication from you sent electronically, whether due to mechanical, software, computer, telecommunications or other Electronic Trading Services failure, does not in any way invalidate or otherwise prejudice that offer or communication or any transaction to which it relates. If, for any reason, we are unable to accept your offer electronically, we may, without obligation, provide you with further information advising you that your offer can be made by telephone as an alternative and we may endeavour to inform you of this.
- 16) In the event that you are granted access to our Mobile Trading Platforms, then all use of such services will be subject both to this Agreement and to any supplemental mobile trading terms posted on our website and amended from time to time.

14 Providing Quotes and Entering into Transactions

- 1) You acknowledge that Spread Charge (being our charge to you) can widen significantly in some circumstances, that they may not be the same size as in the Product Details and that there is no limit on how large they may be. You acknowledge that when you close a Transaction, the Spread may be larger or smaller than the Spread when the Transaction was opened. For Transactions transacted when the Underlying Market is closed or in respect of Transactions where there is no Underlying Market, the figures that we quote will reflect what we believe the market price in an Instrument is at that time. You acknowledge that such figures will be set by us at our reasonable discretion.
- 2) You may request a quote to open a Transaction or to close all or any part of a Transaction at any time during our normal hours of trading for the Instrument in respect of which you wish to open or close the Transaction. Outside those hours, we will be under no obligation to but may, at our absolute discretion, provide a quote and accept and act on your offer to open or close a Transaction. We may notify you of certain Instruments in respect of which we will not quote, restrictions on the amount for which we will quote, or other conditions that may apply to our quote, but any such notification will not be binding on us.
- 3) Upon your request, in accordance with Terms 14(2) and 14(8), we will quote a higher and lower figure for each Transaction ("Our bid and offer prices"). These figures will be based on either the bid and offer prices in the Underlying Market ("Commission Transaction") or our own bid and offer prices ("Spread Transaction"). Details may be found in the Product Details or may be obtained from one of our employees on request.
- 4) A Transaction will be opened or, as the case may be, closed only when your offer has been received and accepted by us. Our acceptance of an offer to open or close a Transaction, and thus the execution of the Transaction, will be evidenced by our confirmation of its terms to you.

Standard Terms of Business

- 5) When you offer to open or close a Transaction in respect of a specified Instrument at the level quoted by us, we may, acting reasonably, accept or reject your offer at any time until the Transaction has been executed or we have acknowledged that your offer has been withdrawn.
- 6) If we become aware that any of the factors set out in Term 14(7) are not satisfied at the time you offer to open or close a Transaction, we reserve the right to reject your offer. If we have, nevertheless, already opened or closed a Transaction prior to becoming aware that a factor set out in Term 14(7) has not been met we may, at our absolute discretion, treat such a Transaction as void from the outset, close it at our then prevailing price or allow it to remain open. You acknowledge that if we allow the Transaction to remain open this may result in you incurring losses. Notwithstanding the existence of a factor set out in Term 14(7), we may allow you to open or, as the case may be, close the Transaction in which case you will be bound by the opening or closing of such Transaction.
- 7) The factors referred to in Term 14(6) include, but are not limited to, the following:
 - (i) the quote must be obtained from us as set out in Term 14(8);
 - (ii) the quote must not be expressed as being given on an 'indicative only' or similar basis;
 - (iii) the quote must not be Manifestly Erroneous;
 - (iv) your offer to open or close the Transaction, and our acceptance of your offer, must be given while the quote is still valid;
 - (v) the telephone conversation or Electronic Conversation in which you offer to open or close the Transaction must not be terminated before we have received and accepted your offer;
 - (vi) when your offer to open or close a Transaction is not for a specified number of shares, contracts or other units that constitute the underlying Instrument;
 - (vii) when you offer to open a Transaction, the number of shares, contracts or other units in respect of which the Transaction is to be opened is neither smaller than the Minimum Size nor larger than the Normal Market Size;
 - (viii) when you offer to close part but not all of an open Transaction both the part of the Transaction that you offer to close and the part that would remain open if we accepted your offer is not smaller than the Minimum Size;
 - (ix) when you offer to open or close any Transaction, the opening or closing of the Transaction does not result in your exceeding any credit or other limit placed on your dealings;

Standard Terms of Business

- (x) when you offer to open a Transaction an Event of Default must not have occurred in respect of you, nor must you have acted in such a way as to trigger an Event of Default; or
 - (xi) a Force Majeure event must not have occurred.
- 8) If we choose to provide a quote, we may provide a quote either orally by telephone or electronically via one of our Electronic Trading Services or by such other means as we may from time to time notify to you. Our provision of a quote to you does not constitute an offer to open or close a Transaction at those levels. A Transaction will be initiated by:
 - (i) you offering to open or close a Transaction in respect of a specified Instrument at the level quoted by us; or;
 - (ii) you placing an Order to open or close a Transaction in respect of a specified Instrument at a level specified by you in that Order and that Order being triggered in accordance with the terms of that order type.
- 9) We reserve the right to refuse any offer to open or close a Transaction larger than the Normal Market Size or Smaller than the Normal Market Size. Our quotation for a Transaction equal to or greater than Normal Market Size is not guaranteed to be within any specific percentage of any Underlying Market or related market quotation and our acceptance of your offer may be subject to special conditions and requirements that we will advise to you at the time we accept your offer. We will inform you of the Normal Market Size for a particular Instrument on request.
- 10) Each Transaction opened or closed by you will be valid and binding on you notwithstanding that the opening or closing of the Transaction may have exceeded any credit or other limit applicable to you or in respect of your dealings with us. A Transaction will be valid and binding on you regardless of it being opened or closed as a result of any inaccuracy or mistake by you.
- 11) If, before your offer to open or close a Transaction is accepted by us, our quote moves to your advantage (for example, if the price goes down as you buy or the price goes up as you sell) you agree that we may (but do not have to) pass such price improvement on to you. The effect of such action being that the level at which you offer to open or close a Transaction will, upon acceptance by us, be altered to the more favourable price. You acknowledge that it is in your best interests for us to alter the level of your offer in the manner contemplated in this Term and you agree that any offer altered in accordance with this Term, once accepted by us, results in a fully binding agreement between us. It is at our absolute discretion as to when we will pass on a price improvement to you, but you should note that we will generally only pass on a price improvement when the market you are trading is volatile. You should also note that we will only pass on a price improvement within allowable limits, and we reserve our right set out in Term 14(5) to reject any offer by you to open or close a Transaction. For the avoidance of doubt, this

Term does not permit us to alter your offer price if to do so would result in your opening or closing (as the case may be) a Transaction at a less favourable price than your offer.

- 12) You agree that our bid and offer prices are provided to you solely for the purpose of you entering into Transactions with us and that you shall not use or rely on our bid and offer prices for any other purpose.
- 13) Where an Instrument trades on multiple Underlying Markets, one of which is the primary Underlying Market, you agree that we may but are not required to base our bid and offer prices on the aggregate bid and offer prices in the Underlying Markets.

15 Opening a Transaction

- 1) You will open a Transaction by 'Buying' or 'Selling'. In this Agreement a Transaction that is opened by 'Buying' is referred to as a "Buy" and may also, in our dealings with you, be referred to as 'Long' or 'Long position'; a Transaction that is opened by 'Selling' is referred to as a "Sell" and may also, in our dealings with you, be referred to as 'Short' or 'Short position'.

 - (i) your opening level is improved in accordance with Term 14(11), where your opening level will be the more favourable price; and
 - (ii) a Transaction is initiated pursuant to an Order, where your opening level will be in accordance with the parameters set out in that Order and the terms of that Order.

- 2) Where you have opened a Sell in respect of a particular Instrument and you subsequently open a Buy in respect of the same Instrument, including by an Order, at a time when the Sell remains open, then unless you instruct us to the contrary (for example, by way of a Force Open, if accepted by us):

Standard Terms of Business

- (i) if the size of the Buy order is less than the size of the Sell we will treat the offer to buy as an offer to partly close the Sell to the extent of the size of the Buy order;
 - (ii) if the size of the Buy order is the same as the size of the Sell we will treat the offer to buy as an offer to close the Sell entirely;
 - (iii) if the size of the Buy order exceeds the size of the Sell we will treat the offer to buy as an offer to close the Sell entirely and open a Buy position equal to the amount of such excess.
- 3) Where you have opened a Buy in respect of a particular Instrument and you subsequently open a Sell in respect of the same Instrument, including by an Order, at a time when the Buy remains open, then unless you instruct us to the contrary (for example, by way of a Force Open, if accepted by us):
- (i) if the size of the Sell order is less than the size of the Buy, we will treat the offer to sell as an offer to partly close the Buy to the extent of the size of the Sell order;
 - (ii) if the size of the Sell order is the same as the size of the Buy, we will treat the offer to sell as an offer to close the Buy entirely;
 - (iii) if the size of the Sell order exceeds the size of the Buy, we will treat the offer to sell as an offer to close the Buy entirely and open a Sell position equal to the amount of such excess.

17 Netting

- 1) It is agreed between us that all transactions between you and us, whether under these Terms or any other agreement, shall be mutual dealings and part of a single, indivisible, contractual and business relationship notwithstanding that the relevant transactions may be governed by different documentation.

- (iii) the Non-Defaulting Party shall treat each cost or loss to it, determined as above, as a positive amount and each gain by it, so determined, as a negative amount and aggregate all of such amounts to produce a single, net positive or negative amount, denominated in the Non-Defaulting Party's Base Currency (the "Liquidation Amount")
